change is slow
sometimes seen, sometimes not,
but change is inevitable—
when we take time to look at ourselves
the image in the mirror has changed—
the student voice is no more a whisper
we have joined the world,
we see war,
inflation, the draft,
the poor and the hungry—
we ask what we can do to help-the voice of youth has coupled its words with action . .

we see our morals, our ideals,
our values
in an upheaval—
yet change is so slow—
war still exists,
so do poverty, crime,
and countless other evils—
the road to change seems too long, almost endless . . .

then suddenly everything
erupts-the world is changing and we cannot stand still . . .

our world is turned upside down and inside out—
we become confused
we must take time to think, to contemplate, to reflect.

we see the tower of change looming even taller—
and the higher we climb the harder it is to remember our first step . . .

changes

Coronation Marks Beginning of Anniversary Celebration

Long hours of preparation and hard work preceded the colorful hour which finally decided who were to be the 1971 Homecoming royalty. Homecoming was held on Thursday, October 14. Laurie Wayne, Mistress of Ceremonies, presented last year's royalty, who were followed by the ten candidates for this year. After the candidates were seated, Mr. Tracy introduced the football team. Next, a representative of the school board, Elmer Vanden Heuvel, gave a little talk. The highlight of the evening was prolonged a little when the crown was lost and Dub was unable to open the envelope. Upon opening the envelope, Brian Wayne was crowned king. Brian then crowned Mary Beth Goodnature as our new queen. Greg Loberg, a representative of the Lettermen, presented Mary Beth with roses, and Mike Marcus presented charms to the queen and her court from the Student Council. The bonfire followed the coronation.

JR. CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class presented the play "Flowers for Algernon" on Nov. 19. It was about Charlie Gordon, a 32-year-old mental retardate. Charlie undergoes a brain operation and gradually becomes a genius. His new intelligence, however, brings new problems, family-wise and friends.

SR. CLASS PLAY

Seniors Present Onions in the Stew

ONIONS IN THE STEW was a comedy dealing with a husband and wife (Rick and Liz) and their two teenage daughters (Becky and Mary Beth). The family moved from Seattle to a nearby island where the girls felt "stranded in the middle of the ocean," although the island had a small town and a school. The girls bickered about hair, boys, and other problems teenagers face.

Besides the problems with the girls, the parents encountered plumbing, snow, and other usual household problems. Finally, the decision was made to move back to Seattle and its security. Before the big move, however, the family realized how much they really loved the island, and thus, decided to stay.

When asked about his part, John Donahue stated, "It was too small; I wanted to be the lead."

"I didn't like my part 'cause I looked nine months along, but I liked the play okey-dokey," commented Jim Mowers.

"I enjoyed being in it," stated Linda Raonson.

Liz Ottesen severely reprehends Becky Marcus for using face cream to "keep my good complexion and prevent me from becoming a wrinkled old hag!"

Greg Loberg, Monte Spurr and Laurie Wayne take time out to relax at the dance.

Craig Miller, Larry Lageson and Bruce Jensen seem to be overtaken by the punch at the Prom dance.

Mary Jane Hanson and Bruce Hunter are involved in the music at the dance.

Uniqueness Captivates in Theme, Brass Band

Some senior girls spent only 75¢ for Prom (their date's boutonniere). Others were extravagant, with expenses such as these:

Dress	$50	Tuxedo Rent.	$25
Shoes	$10	Corsage	$5
Boutonniere	.75	Gas	$4
Sunday outfit	$15	Refreshments	$5
Total	$75.75	Sunday expenses	$10
		Total	$49

The juniors brought the Prom back to the school this year. Tim Donovan provided a few laughs as master of ceremonies at the traditional banquet. The Class Prophecy was read; it helped the seniors to figure out their "futures."

The "Circus" band provided the music at the dance.

AWARD'S DAY, GRADUATION

Joys and Sorrows Are Faced at Graduation

AWARD'S DAY was held on Thursday, May 25th. The following people received awards: Arian Award--Becky Marcus; Chorus Award--Becky Marcus; Federated Award--Sharon Wallace; Athlete of the Year--Monte Spurr and Brian Wayne; Science Award--Jean Dixen; PTA Scholarship--Linda Aronson; Legion Award--Dave Dunn; VFW Legion Award--Kathy Crabtree and Shirley Smith; FTA Scholarship--Linda Aronson and Darla Waltz; Wrestling Pinner Trophy--Brian Wayne; and Baseball All-Conference-- Monte Spurr, Steve Engel, and Curt Langlie.

After 12 years of preparation the CLASS OF '72 filed down the aisles of EHS and onto the stage.

Jean Dixen was the first student speaker to give her address. To her friendship was one the of most rewarding experiences of high school. She recited a poem asking the question "why do I like you?"

After trying to draw the line between conformity and non-conformity, Greg Loberg, ended up speaking on individuality. He felt the students of today were all trying to be like one another, and he hoped they would find their own individuality in a complex world.

Sherry Misgen, the third student speaker, felt it was time to speak out on both sides of our educational system. She questioned the objectives of education in our school.

Our foreign student, Eija Kemppila, offered a farewell address to the community. She told of her first learning she was coming to America, trying to find Ellendale on the map, some of her momeries from the year, and her plans to return to Ellendale after the two-year waiting period is up.

The ceremonies held in the high school gymnasium included a performance by the high school bnad.

Saying it "sounded and looked like a funeral," Supt. Mr. Engel wanted to liven things up a little. He presented a gift from the school district to Mrs. Newgard, retiring elementary teacher. He then presented the class of 1972.

Following the announcement of their names, the 53 graduates received their diplomas.

Pain, Victory, Losses

The Ellendale Raiders were led by captains Monte Spurr, DeWayne Jensen, and All-Conference Brian Wayne. After Spurr was injured the team became less potential. They posted an overall 3-6 record and 1-6 conference record to finish last. The team was mainly hampered by inexperience which led to many mistakes and inconsistent play. However, the Raiders were able to come up with several impressive games.

Rick Cook said, "It was a fairly successful year, but our record did not really show the quality of the team." Ron Langlie said, "Fun, lots of spirit, good captains, but three and six record." "Alot of hard work; it was worthwhile; it was fun working with the kids," were Brian Wayne's words. Monte Spurr summed it up by saying, "Pain, victory, losses." An anonymous quote about the Janesville game was, "We went out there to have a good time." (They probably did have fun in the mud, but they got skunked!)

Activities in the locker room included the managers getting wet and Jon Menefee being dragged downstairs.

Lyle Wallace hopes that next year he will be able to master the four-count jumping jacks. Next year is promising with many of the varsity's key players returning and bright new talents from the sophomore ranks.

B AND C FOOTBALL

Underclassmen Exhibit Spirit That Produces Bright Future

The 1971 B-SQUAD had the distinction of giving up only six points in six games, so defensively it was very strong. It had the speed and aggressiveness to stop the opponent. Offensively, there were a few problems early in the year, but a great deal of improvement was shown with more experience. By the end of the season they were able to score from nearly anywhere on the field, either by running or passing. The team was very durable, suffering no serious injuries. To be able to block and tackle well takes a lot of desire and concentration. These boys showed the ability to do so. In the New Richland game our team rebounded from a disappointing first half to play really inspired football defensively in the second half. It's always satisfying to beat N. R. There were many boys on this year's B-squad who had the desire and ability to make a fine contribution on the A-squad next year. It will be a challenge for next year's B-squad to do as well.

The C-SQUAD 8th grade had a 3-3 record. The 7th grade had a 2-2 record. A total team effort and hard work at practice contributed to the C-squad's success.

BASKETBALL, A-SQUAD

Team Takes Conference

The basketball team finished the 1971-72 season with a record of 20 wins and 3 losses. The team captured the Gopher Conference with a perfect 14-0 record.

Monte Spurr, Ron Langlie and Curt Langlie made the all-conference team, with Monte leading the conference in scoring. Monte, one of the finest basketball players Ellendale has ever had, was also named to the WCCO Team of the Week.

The key to the season was winning the first four games, all against teams expected to be in the top division of the conference. The team came of age in the game at Glenville. An upset over powered New Richland also provided an indication of a changed team. In the second half of the season every team our boys played was keyed for an upset, but we won in almost routine fashion every time. The boys' confidence and poise were amazing.

The team pressed full-court on defense and used a fast-break offense featured by good passing. The defense by tournament time was a little short of what it could have been. The team improved with every game and could have done well in the region. The Raiders were eliminated in the finals of the district.

The Cagers had exceptional depth with ten fine players. They displayed very good team play; it was unselfish, rather than an individual effort. Other assets included good over-all shooting ability and good team speed.

"The first game, which was against Blooming Prairie, was the most satisfying victory," stated Coach Peterson.

An unexpected loss to Freebron was experienced in the finals of our Holiday Invitational. The loss was avenged, however, by crushing them three weeks later. Both our games with New Richland were close thrillers.

NINTH GRADE BB

The squad compiled a fine 8-1 season's record & a perfect 6-0 mark in conference play. The team's only loss of the year was their first game played, to Austin Pacelli, 26-25.

The B-BASKETBALL TEAM posted a 16-4 record, placing second behind Glenville in the conference. The team had many chances at the end of the season to go into first place, but failed to win that big game. The ninth-grade team had an 8-1 record, losing the first game, 25-24. They were 6-0 in conference play.

Good balance and the ability to run with the ball contributed to the team's success. They played a fast game with the full-court press being a big part of the game. Coach Tracy stated, "The most satisfying victory was the third game when we beat Medford by one point in overtime after losing the first two games by one and two points."

The C-BASKETBALL TEAM had a lot of height and were good at rebounding and outside shooting. Defense was their greatest weakness. Coach Lickfelt stated, "The boys learned a lot of fundamentals this year. I think both the seventh and eighth grades will represent EHS very well in the future."

The eighth grade's most satisfying victory was the game against Glenville--it was their first win in two years.

WRESTLING

Wrestling Skill Gained Through Hard Practice

19 Ellendale Wrestling Squad 72

This was a rebuilding year for the Ellendale wrestling squad. Even with the lack of experience the squad came from the basement in the conference standings to take third place in the Conference Tournament as New Richland took first and Morristown and Waterville tied for second. Brian Wayne and Ron Knutson earned themselves a conference championship in the tournament. Brian Wayne carried on with his winning ways as he won the district and regional championships at 138 lbs. and won his first match in the State Tournament.

With the added experience of the past season the squad's future looks very promising for the upcoming season. Next year's squad will be composed of Sophomore and Junior lettermen who have had valuable experience.

Four seniors participated in the program: DeWayne Jensen--Discus, Rick Cook--Sprints and Relays, Brian Wayne--Pole Vault, and Monte Spurr--High Jump. Mr. Meyer was their coach.

The Baseball team placed second in the Gopher Conference with a 10-4 record. Monte Spurr, Curt Langlie and Steve Engel were awarded positions on the All-Conference with.

Curt Langlie, pitcher, and Monte Spurr, outfielder, were recognized by Coach Christensen as outstanding team members, contributing to the team's success.

The team's main weakness was the fielding errors committed.

Returning lettermen for next year will include Curt Langlie, Steve Engel, Rich Johnson, Ron Langlie, Larry Jensen and Scott Christensen. These lettermen will contribute to the strentgh of the team to hopefully make it a good season.

Band Adds Spirit to Games Through New School Song

The Sr. Band is made up from students in grades 8-12. The band rehearses five class periods per week. The band adds to the pageantry and panorama of all football and basketball games. Some of the main performances of the band are their annual Fall, Christmas, Spring, Pop, and Tri-School Concerts. Each year many students from the instrumental music program participate in the annual solo and ensemble contest. The band competed in the District II Music Contest at Albert Lea. During the summer months the band was kept very busy presenting weekly concerts in Ellendale and Geneva. The band does several marching engagements each summer, the main parade being the Annual North Iowa Band Festival in Mason City. This year the band represented the Ellendale Lion's Club at their state convention in Bloomington on June 17.

Spirit Sparkles Within School Paper

The Paperstaff published the school paper, the RAIDER READER. The paper contained short stories written by students, senior articles, gossip columns, including Eagle Eggs, and articles covering any happening events. Many changes were made in the paper. The pages were set up differently, new headline styles were used, and pictures were used for the first time. The Paper staff was under the guidance of co-editors, Lauri Richards and Jean Dixen. The advisor, Mrs. Cooper, also put in a lot of work typing. Three girls did the cover each month--Jean Smith, Linda Aronson, and Barb Klinger. Students looked forward to the RAIDER READER each month.

Julie Kasper, Annette Flugum, and Lacinda Jensen are deeply involved in the football game.

JR. BAND, JR. AND SR. CHORUS

Cultural Appreciation Taught Through Music

The JR. BAND is made up of students from grades 5-7. They rehearse as a band two school periods a week. In addition to this, each student has either a private or group lesson once a week. The Jr. Band presents at least one concert a year, plus they play at one basketball game per season. The Honorable Marcus Skroch tells us he plans to retain his merger job as band director for next year.

Both JR. AND SR. HIGH CHORUS were led by Mrs. Grabow, a new, first year teacher. A variety of activities was available to chorus members, as they were able to participate more actively by playing guitar, being piano accompanists, and soloists.

STUDENT COUNCIL, SR. GRA, JR. GRA

Girls Strive for Good Figures in GRA

The SR. GRA left a lot to be desired this year because of its inactivity. Next year the girls are interested in having a camp-out in the gym, having skits like the Pep Club for the pep fests, and becoming more active in sports.

The JR. GRA held meetings throughout most of the year. They also went bowling, roller skating, had a slumber party in the gym, went to the Twins game, and had bake sales. "We'll miss Jr. GRA--in Sr. GRA we don't get a slumber party, because Miss Smith says the boys will all come," remarked Sue Misgen.

Besides sponsoring dances, which were open to both N. R. and B. P., the STUDENT COUNCIL created a lounge out of the balcony in the old gym. In the spring they showed a "Laurel and Hardy" movie. "The student lounge is nice, but that "Laurel and Hardy" movie is sick!" stated Tim Donovan.

PEP CLUB, MAJORETTES

Girls Give Time and Effort to Activities

PEP CLUB, newly organized this year, was formed to arouse enthusiasm of different sports events. On Wednesday nights the halls were strewn with paper, paint and brushes. Clustered around the paper were Pep Club members expressing their support for our Raiders. The signs were used for later games and new signs were designed by the girls each week for athletic events.

The 1971-72 MAJORETTES consisted of three marchers, four twirlers and head majorette The marchers participated in parades, leading the EHS band. The entire squad was featured at football and basketball games.

CHEERLEADERS

Being a cheerleader is not as glamorous as it seems. Our girls worked an endless number of hours, individually and as a squad, exercising their limbs and lungs. Practice was held throughout the summer. When school began, cheers from the gym area corridor rang out after school was dismissed.

Girls Experience Joys and Agonies of Sports

FFA All the Way

This year's activities in SR. FHA included a style show, the District meeting at Prague, and a guest speaker on weight control. "At the weight watchers meeting someone made chocolate cake with frosting--that lady almost died; it was fun," stated Brenda Nelson.

Elizabeth Falksen commented about JR. FHA, "it was not completely organized yet, because it was only formed last year."

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA members chose a teacher to work for. President Becky VandenHeuvel stated as FTA's purpose, "To prepare you to be a better teacher by working with the elementary kids."

The FFA Advisor, Mr. Schmidt, did his best to attack the farming problems of today. Highlights of the club included Lowell coming to break up one of the meetings and another meeting when Robert Christensen' tripped over the oil can, with oil going all over the walls and people.

"We learned how to get the most out of your mutton and also the fundamentals of destruction," commented Vince Bergdale."

"It's farm out man, with the wheeling, dealing and stealing," explained Dave DeVriendt.

"It was a worthwhile organization while Mr. Schmidt was here, but now that he has gone I have nothing to take my anxieties out on," stated Tim D.

LETTERMEN, DECLAM, FOREIGN STUDENT

EHS Athletes Plan for Meetings and Events

Ellendale's second FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT was Eija Kemppila from Finland. Her first part of the year was spent at the C. H. Crabtree home and the second part at the Edwin Jensen home.

Eija stated, "I think the AFS program is really great, because this way the different countries are able to come closer to each other. To me this year has taught many different things about human life, the things which I would have probably never learned."

The prequisite for joining the LETTERMEN CLUB was to letter in one of the school sports. This entitled a boy to partake in all club activities and to wear the jacket, the club's symbol.

"The purpose of the Lettermen Club is to raise money and have good athletes," stated Curt Langlie.

Dave Lieberg felt the purpose was "to raise money to buy stuff we can use."

Everyone in DECLAM participated in sub-district competition. Four went on to district, and Jean Dixen went on to regional competition.

"The purpose of DECLAM is to help you become at ease in front of people," stated Deb Sloan.

The Joy of Special Moments Is Reflected on Happy Faces

The Senior Banquet has always been a significant event of the senior year because it is the last time the class assembles as a group until baccalaureate. This year's theme was "Eat, Drink, and Be Merry."

As in the past, parties were important to some, At one gathering a priest even showed up.

Such common words as "Whopper," "Dog," "Trixie," and "Wallie" had a deeper meaning to the seniors this year. To Brian Wayne "hot dogs and catsup" brought back nineth grade memories.

On the senior skip day, only 20 people showed up for the traditional festivities; an example of their independence.

Senioritas became prevelent as spring approached. A group of girls were caught skipping their "priveleged" class--Bus. Mach. Their punishment was to apologize individually to the instructor and class.

Junior Class Is Led by Capable Class Officers

The class of '73 were all for up-holding traditions. They selected a traditional ring and this year brought the prom back to the school.

Kris Munson relayed to us that she like the french fries in the lunch room. She also commented about the prom, "It's gonna be alot of " " hard work!"

The MSAT was administered to the students this year. The test gave the students and colleges an indication of their achievements and are necessary for admission to the state area vocational technical schools.

In regard to the party in N.R., Faith Jensen had this to say, "They'd better do something about those police station windows. Someone could get out!"

Sophomore Girls Help Promote School Spirit

Excitement, frustration, and uncertainty were some of the emotional feelings experienced by the sophomores as they adjusted to senior high life.

Continuing the tradition upheld for so many years, many sophomores again this year went to the weekend parties. The number one party this year was in N. R. and quite a few sophomores were there. Some were caught, others fought, there was a question of who bought, and for most there was a lot taught.

They worked on Homecoming floats, planned the bonfire after coronation, and many bought that first, important car.

Proving their potential for high school leadership, they were also active in Student Council.

Entire World Open to Freshmen Who Finish Driver Education

"Look out!" on the roads! Most of the kids pictured here have now passed Dr. Training and are on the roads with either a permit or a farm license. It was a long struggle--reading the chapters, studying for tests, and, of course, listening to Mr. Zicafoose talk.

This past summer they were on the roads with Mr. Zicafoose for "behind the wheel," traveling to A.L., Owatonna, Austin, Hayfield, Waseca, and many more. If you happen to see a freshmen driver on the road--give him room!

Hopes of a Decisive Victory Encourage True School Spirit

Members of the eighth grade class occupied much of their time participating in school activities and athletics. Rollerskating was quite popular. Most of the time the bus provided more entertainment than the rink. Getting together at the Friday night games was another activity.

Many of the girls tried out for cheerleading, an activity open to them for the first year.

Most of the students are anxious for next year when they will be old enough to get into the dances--and not have to sneak in.

Along with the happy moments came a very sad moment. The eighth graders lost a classmate and friend, Janet Schroeder, who died on October 20, 1971.

Curious Minds Search for Life's Explanation

Along with the usual fighting and playing on the playground this past year, the 5th and 6th graders, worked and PLAYED in the classroom. Mrs. Van Wyngeeren's and Mrs. Luken's class worked for a number of weeks on contracts, while Mrs. Stadheim's class experimented with electricity. Mr. Wandrey tried to promote individuality among her students by stressing creative writing.

FOURTH GRADE

Physical Fitness A Big Emphasis in "Phy. Ed."

The 4th graders and their teachers collaborated on many ideas through the year. Mrs. Anderson worked with her students on the telephone and Mrs. Slezak's class took world tours each week by studying a different country and its customs.

The 3rd graders went on a field trip to the Owatonna Public Library, stopping at Robby's, of course, for a break. Mrs. Norgaard's class attended FABLES, NOW AND THEN at the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis. They also made puppets and presented a program.

KINDERGARTEN

Students Express Creativity, Originality

Kindergarten is no longer play time! Today's kindergarten classes are learning group play, cooperation, sharing, letter names, sound word attack skills, number meanings and relationships, when their birthdays are, how to tie shoes, telephone numbers, etc.

One of the FTA girls working for Miss Liestman had this to say about the kids, "And to think they'll be seniors some day?!"

SCHOOL PATROL

The Minnesota School Safety Patrol is a community organization of boys and girls over nine years of age who assist schoolmates in safely crossing streets and highways in Minnesota.

School safety patrols symbolize the importance of cooperation and safety. Satisfactory operation of school patrols should come only after administrators, teachers, pupils, and parents have discussed and decided upon the purposes for such organizations and the goals to be reached.

The local American Legion is the sponsor of Ellendale's school patrol, and Mr. Stokke is their advisor. Emery Miller is the Legion's representative.

Co-captains Raymond Riestad and Brenda Halter, with Roger Johnson.
